MASQUERADE BALL

One of the largest gatherings in Monitor taxed the capacity of the Town Hall, on Monday last, the occasion being the Woodmen's Masquerade Ball.

The big crowd thoroughly enjoyed the event and altho the floor space was packed during most of the dances, things moved along smoothly. The judges, Messrs Martin, Lay and Siegholm, had no easy task in picking the winners of the various prizes. Mr. and Mrs. H. Ingersoll won the couple prize as 'Day and Night', the most original and striking pair of costumes at the dance. The other winners were, Mrs. A. Christensen, Mrs. N. Foster, W. Radel and Mac McDonald.

The local band furnished the music.

SMALL FIRE

Some little excitement was stirred up last week when a fire broke out in the office of the North Star elevator.

It was a hot blaze but was put out by the bucket brigade the water being obtained from a locomotive that was standing close by. A. Christensen lost several articles of wearing apparel, etc., but managed to save the firm's books.

Note and Comment

It is to be hoped that a good representative board of school trustees will be elected, at the annual meeting, and we would like to see some of the ladies of the district holding office.

With the ladies having the privileges as the men, there is nothing to hinder them from directing the affairs of the school.

Several shows have been booked for Monitor, for the winter season and the great range of variety should please everybody's taste and fancy.

These shows are replacing the movies in many towns.

The kaiser must have been surprised that the Almighty had cut down Germany's potato yield by over 50 per cent below last year's crop.

Hakon Julseth is spending his winter vacation at Minne-
train. If Hakon is searching for a warm place to spend the winter, why doesn't he go back to his native town? His people live at Hell, Norway.
—Borderline Budget.

If government of the people by the people, and for the people perishes from the earth, it will be because we have substituted self-will for the divine will, the infallibility of majorities for the infallibility of the church, private interests for the public welfare, and the notion that might makes right for the eternal truth that right makes might.—N. Y. Sun.

Owing to our supply of paper not reaching us in time we are using some that we have had in stock for several months.
We are sorry that this has happened as a great many subscribers are reading the continued story.

We would ask all those who have not yet paid their subscriptions to the News, to come and leave their dollar with us, and it will be appreciated.

Statistics show

That for the first six months of 1916 there was a big increase in fire losses in Canada.

Your home or place of business may be included in the losses of the next six months.

Better have them insured at once and not run the risk of being left penniless, in case of a fire.

NEWS FROM THE FRONT

J. A. Connah writes under date of Dec. 4th: Hope to be on 10 days leave in 'Blighty' at Xmas. It's 9 months today since I came out here so I think I deserve it. Walt Purdy is out here again and he also has got his stripe. I am in the trenches for an extra turn this week as two of our sergeants are wounded and the other corporal is sick. Weather is a little better but we had our gun position smashed by the enemy and my gun crew has only just repaired it. I've improved on it this time and also made it more comfortable by rigging up a stove made out of two snipers shields and some corrugated sheets bent to make a chimney. A lamp made out of a meat tin, a 3 1/2 inch wire, and cut off, for the burner, and a piece of rag for wick. We have plenty of food.

When we advance, our first job is to make the captured position 'Safe', next, to make ourselves comfy, but we are on the move forward about every few days now. We use biscuit tins and all sorts of rigs to warm up our grub. I enclose you a bit of ribbon off my Military Medal.
